

Jane Margaret French-Sloan

Janey French-Sloan left this earthly plane May 6, 2019. Janey was born in Hastings, NE to Robert and Winifred (Peg) French. She received her bachelors from the University of Nebraska Lincoln and retired from Lincoln Public Schools. Married in August 16, 1991 to Sam Sloan.

She is survived by her husband Sam Sloan, daughters Haley (Keenan) Fischman, and Melissa French-Sloan, sisters Kathy Smith (Tim Butterfield), Bobbi French, brothers Duane (Kelly) French, Rod (Lisa) French, Tim French. Also numerous nieces and nephews, and granddog Merlin. Preceded in death by parents Bob and Peg French and nephew Derek Smith.

Janey was a strong and passionate person whose caring and nurturing spirit will forever be missed. As a very private person, we ask that you remember her in your own way. The most important things to Jane were family, the children she worked with in her career, and being a champion for the underdog. She also enjoyed a nice hamburger and sauerkraut pizza from Papa Ray's.

No service.

Funeral Home assisting is Aspen Mortuary, 4822 Cleveland Avenue, Lincoln, NE 68504. To view an on-line obituary or email condolences please visit Aspen Mortuary's website at www.aspenaftercare.com.

Thinking of you all especially today on Mother's Day. Your mom was able to see you do so much in your lives and surely not enough. May all the love, caring, and precious conversation you shared with your mom sustain you.
